PRESIDENT CAPEN SUCCEEDS HIMSELF.

Chosen Chief Executive at Election of American Board of Commissioners.

CONDITION

MISSIONS.

Appeal to Delinquent Contributors Issued-Celebration of Lord's Supper - Discussion of Various Reports.

the Lord's Supper and the election of of-ficers were among the chief features of the closing sessions of the American Board of Commissioners yesterday, President Samuel B. Capen was re-elected.

The first report was made by the Reverend Doctor DeWitt S. Clark in behalf of the Committee on Eleven Missions, under the care of the Reverend Doctor Judson Smith. care of the Reverend Doctor Judson Smita, foreign secretary. The three in South Africa, Zula, East and Central, were re-viewed, and the recommendation was made for the official visitation of these by the board as soon as practicable. The four in China, South, North, Shan-Si and Foo-Chow, were discussed at length, setting forth the great less sustained. Western and Central missions in Turkey were reported to be taking new courage. Fourteen of the sixty reported in a flourishing condition. The report of Doctor Clark was followed by ad-dresses from the Reverend C. A. Nelson of Canton, from the Reverend W. C. Wilcox of the Zulu Mission and the Reverend H. P. Perkins of Lin-Ching Mission. Doctor Dan F. Bradley of Grand Rapids, Mich., teported on the paper of Doctor C. H. Daniels, secretary of the home depart-ment. He called attention to the fact that there are at least 2,000 churches that are not contributing to the work of the board. He made a special plea for the Twentieth-Century fund, urging all the churches to co-operate to the fullest extent possible.

The Reverend Edward B. Hume of Bombay, in his report, said that the Indian famine had opened up the way for reaching the masses; also, that there were now 2,000 orphans on their hands.

The Reverend Edward P. Moulton read a report on the missions in Ceylon, and said that, while they are second in point of age, they are first in the matter of development and self-support. The mission has two main hospitals and two outstation dispensaries. The report spoke of the educational work as being of the highest order and of the institutions as largely self-supporting.

LL. D.; Missouri, the Reverend C. H. Pat-ton, D. D.; Kansas, M. V. B. Parker; Ore-gon, the Reverend A. W. Ackerman.

Night Session.

The topic under discussion at last night's session was "The Relation of the Theological Seminaries to World-Wide Evangelization: The Training of Missionaries and the Raising Up of a Missionaries and the Raising Up of a Missionaries and the Raising Up of a Missionaries and the Samuel B. Capen. Short addresses on the topic of the evening were made by Professor Williston Walker, D. D., of the Hartford Theological Seminary, Hartford, Conn.; Professor George F. Moore, D. D., president of the Andover Theological Seminary, Andover, Mass., and Professor J. K. McLean, D. D., president of the Pacific Seminary, Oakland, Cal. Each pointed out the different means by which the ends in view were being accomplished by the training theological students received in the three seminaries represented by the speckers. At the close of their remarks the question was generally discussed by the different members of the board. Night Session.

The closing address was made by the Reverend C. H. Patton, D. D., of the First Congregational Church, St. Louis, He referred to the progress made by the missionaries in distant fields, and to the renewed interest taken in the advancement of the most modern methods of training theological students for missionary work. At the close of his remarks the meeting was adjourned.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

Second Baptist Congregation to Meet at Temple Shaare Emeth.

The Second Baptist Church on last Sun day unanimously voted to accept the invi-tation of the trustees of the Temple Shaare Emeth, Lindell boulevard and Vandeventer avenue, and to hold its Sunday might service there, beginning to-morrow. #### YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

Topic: "Paul the Missionary; the Secret of His Success." (II. Timothy iv, 1-8.)

The topic universal for the young people's societies of the country to-morrow is "Paul the Missionary; the Secret of His Success." and it is founded on Timothy Iv, 1-8, which and it is founded on Timothy iv, 1–8, which is Paul's special instruction to his son Timothy in the prosecution of his work as an evangelist.

The instructions begin with a solemn charge "before God and the Lord Jesus Christ," which undoubtedly served to impress the message upon this young servant of the Lord. It should here be noted that this same charge is equally binding upon all who enter the gospel ministry and assume its weighty responsibilities. When rightly given and rightly received, it is a commission from heaven and not merely of man. The special message given to all such is: "Preach the word; be instant in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with

SONG ENRAGED DOG.

High Notes Grated on Animal's Nerves and He Fought.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Sharon, Pa., Oct. 12.-Harry Tittsler, son of Poor Director L. M. Tittsler, has just had a desperate fight with a large shepherd dog. Whenever he wished to annoy the dog dog. Whenever he wished to annoy the dog it was Tittsler's custom to sing at the top of his voice. This he did, and the dog jumped on him, grasping him by the throat. It was a powerful animal, and lacerated Tittsler's face and arms badly before he could defend himself. He succeeded in getting his knife out of his pocket and stabbed the dog several times in the side. It fell over exhausted from loss of blood, and died in a few minutes. Tittsler's wounds, which are serious, were cauterized.
